

Communication Studies Transfer Guide: ANOKA-RAMSEY

A special emphasis on communication ethics throughout the curriculum recognizes a commitment to ethical as well as effective leadership. This program prepares students for successful careers in fields as diverse as education, government, business, ministry, teaching & the law.

St. Kate's is committed to providing options as you consider completing your bachelor's degree. We hope to maximize your educational experience, advise you in the financial aid process and assist in mapping out an optimal timeline. Please consider working with us as early as possible to optimize your educational opportunities.

St. Kate's Transfer Policy:

1. A minimum of 50% of required Major courses must be taken in residence. (Does NOT apply to Prerequisite or Supporting work)
2. Students must achieve a C- or above for courses to transfer
3. A minimum of 48 of the last 64 credits in residence; a maximum *82 of the 130 credits required may be transfer credits.
*Special transfer rules apply for students earning an A.A. degree (Contact admissions counselor for details)
4. Transfer courses = to a St. Kate's course but not = in credit value will be awarded the transfer course credit value

All required major courses are listed below along with any ANOKA-RAMSEY courses which may be used to complete them. The major consists of 11 required Major courses. ANOKA-RAMSEY offers options to complete 5 of the 11 courses.

To earn a bachelor's degree from St. Kate's, students must complete 130 total credits including the major courses listed here & a package of Core Liberal Arts areas (similar to the Goals in MnSCU). Fewer core course are required for students with an A.A. or the MnTC completed. See Baccalaureate Core Guide for detailed info.
